[From our Second Edition of yesterday.]

ADAMS, SEWARD AND LORD LYONS.

Richmond, Dec. 18.

Minister Adams, in a dispatch to Seward, dated London, Oct. 29, states that he had had an interview with Lord Lyons just before his departure for America, and while he talked in deploring the tendency to irritation in both countries produced by Mr. Gladstone's speech, they also joined in expressions of intention to continue their utmost efforts to counteract them. Adams says he was much less sanguine of success when he pondered what was brought to their consideration by leading men. Lord Russell believed him, however, that it was the intention of the government to adhere to the rule of perfect neutrality in this struggle, and let it come to its natural end without the smallest interference, direct or otherwise.

HEADQUARTERS CAMPS OF INSTRUCTION,

Camp Holmes, Nov. 22, 1862.

Special Orders, }
No. 41. }

I. COMMANDING OFFICERS OF MILITIA REGIMENTS are required to assemble all persons subject to the provisions of the act entitled "an act to amend an act approved September 28, 1862, and enroll the same.

II. An Enrolling Officer and an Examining Board will be appointed for each Congressional District, who will give due notice to the Commanding Officers of Regiments to bring the Conscripts to the County Seats of their respective Counties for examination. Immediately upon examination, the said Commanding Officers of Regiments will conduct all Conscripts not having received certificate of exemption to the Camp of Instruction, near Raleigh.

III. All persons who may desire to volunteer must do so before the 20th of December, the day set apart for enrollment and must join companies which were in the service of the Confederate States on the 16th of April, 1862.

IV. Applications for exemption must, in all cases, be made to the Enrolling Officer of the District; duplicate copies of said application being made in writing, duly sworn to before an acting Justice of the Peace, and bearing the certificate of the Clerk of the Court, given under the County Seal and sent through the Colonel of the Regiment. An appeal may be taken from the decision of the Enrolling Officer to the Commandant of Conscripts.

V. All Conscripts engaged on Government works will be examined and returned to their said work.

In issuing the above orders for the enrollment of Conscripts between the ages of 18 and 40, the Commandant avails himself of the opportunity to thank the State Officers for their untiring and laborious efforts in the discharge of their duties, and the efficient and ready assistance rendered to him in their official capacity heretofore.

The importance and absolute necessity of renewed energy and prompt action in executing these orders faithfully, is fully expressed in His Excellency Governor Vance's General Order, No. 16.

The efficiency of the army and the safety of our country depends, in a great measure, upon their faithful discharge of these duties.

By order of Colonel Peter Mallett, Commandant of Conscripts in N. C.

Dec 11-2w R. MANN, Adj't.

Executive Department North Carolina,

Adjutant General's Office,
Raleigh, Nov. 27, 1862.

General Order, }
No. 16. }

I. THE PRESIDENT OF THE CONFEDERATE States having deemed it necessary to call into service, under the provisions of the recent act of Congress, all persons liable to military duty between the ages of 18 and 35 years, the Commanding Officers of the Militia will call out their respective Regiments and enroll and conduct to the Camp of Instruction all persons liable to military duty under this law, at such times as Colonel Peter Mallett, Chief Enrolling Officer for the State, may direct.

II. The enemy are pressing upon us in great numbers, with the intention to overwhelm us by a winter campaign. His danger now comes from the South side of James river, and as the scene of war approaches nearer to our borders, it becomes North Carolinians to rush even more promptly than before to the defence of our own territory. If we can drive him back once more, as we have so often done, there is every reason to hope that his strength will be effectually broken. The various officers entrusted with the execution of this order are again commanded to use all diligence in arresting deserters and absentees without leave from the army, and all good citizens who prize liberty and independence, are earnestly invoked to assist in hurrying off all such to their regiments. The brave and patriotic soldier will not over-stay his furlough unless providentially hindered. The coward alone will skirk (at home) whilst his braver comrades endure the heat and burthen of the fight.

By order of Governor Vance:
